

The Control of Explosive Magazines on Mines and Quarries

Registration number: SPCLA – G003

NQF: FET

Duration: 17 Days

Accrediting SETA: MQA

Credits: 10

RPL: Yes

Purpose

People with this skills programme will be able to comply with the requirements of the Chief Inspector of Explosives as well as the Explosives Usage Mines Regulations under the MHSA in terms of explosives materials storage.

Entry Criteria

- Communication and Numeracy skills – NQF level 3
- An understanding of basic storekeeping principles
- This qualification is open to anyone with access to learning opportunities and work experience around procurement and storage of explosives for use in rockbreaking.

Qualification Rules:

This qualification is made up of core and elective unit standards and a minimum of 10 credits is required to complete the qualification:

Core:

- All 10 credits must be achieved

Elective:

- A learner may select an elective to be achieved where appropriate

Core Unit Standards

SAQA ID	UNIT STANDARD TITLE	CREDITS
110218	Collect, store and issue explosives from a surface magazine	10

Elective Unit Standards

SAQA ID	UNIT STANDARD TITLE	CREDITS
11666	Transport and distribute explosives using light delivery explosives vehicle	4
9708	Transport and distribute explosives using heavy duty explosives vehicle	4